Studied at Westminster Choir College 1972-1976

- Organ instructors included Joan Lippincott and Dr. George Markey
- Conducting with Joseph Flummerfelt
- Vocal instruction with Robert Simpson

I have been playing organ since about 1966. A back-to-back winner of the Central New York Chapter AGO Student Competition, while studying with Stephen Best of First Presbyterian Church and Hamilton College.

Over the years, I have served as organist/choirmaster and director of music in Presbyterian, Methodist, Episcopal and Lutheran churches in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Texas and New York.

After locating to St. Petersburg, I was recently involved in the music program of The Cathedral Church of St. Peter for a number of years, both as a chorister and assisting organist and bell choir director. I have also had the opportunity to do substitute organ work in Episcopal, Roman Catholic, Lutheran, Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches in the Tampa Bay area.

Currently I am in an interim position in Largo, FL, but am available for weddings, funerals or special services (not Sunday morning).
